1. BACKGROUND

The Information Regulator (Regulator) is established in terms of Section 39 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA). Which provides that “there is hereby established a Juristic person to be known as the Information Regulator, which-

- (a) has the jurisdiction throughout the Republic;
- (b) is independent and subject to the Constitution and the law and must be impartial and perform its functions and exercise its powers without fear; favour or prejudice;
- (c) must exercise its powers and perform its functions in accordance with this Act and the Promotion of Access to Information Act; and
- (d) is accountable to the National Assembly.”

2. OBJECTIVE OF POPIA

The purpose of POPIA in terms of sections 2 (a) (i) and (ii), (b), (c) and (d) is to –

- (a) give effect to the constitutional right to privacy, by safeguarding personal information when processed by a responsible party, subject to justifiable limitations that are aimed at –
  - (i) balancing the right to privacy against other rights, particularly the right of access to information; and
  - (ii) protecting important interests, including the free flow of information within the Republic and across international borders;
- (b) regulate the manner in which personal information may be processed, by establishing conditions, in harmony with international standards, that prescribe the minimum threshold requirements for the lawful processing of personal information;
- (c) provide persons with rights and remedies to protect the personal information from processing that is not in accordance with this Act; and
- (d) Establish voluntary and compulsory measures, including the establishment of an Information Regulator, to ensure respect for and to promote, enforce and fulfil the rights protected by this Act.

3. SECTIONS OF POPIA THAT ARE CURRENTLY OPERATIONAL

3.1. On 19 November 2013 the President proclaimed the following sections of POPIA to come into effect-

- Section 1;
- Sections 39 to 54; and
- Sections 112 and 113.

3.2. On 17 June 2020 the President signed a Proclamation in terms of which the following sections of POPIA will come into effect on 1 July 2020:

- 2 to 38;
- 55 to 109;
- 111; and
- 114(1),(2) and (3)
- Sections 110 and section 114(4) will come into effect on 30 June 2021.

4. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE OF THE READINESS PLAN

4.1.1. The purpose of this Operational Readiness Plan (ORP) is to identify performance tasks and creating deliverables throughout the implementation period, to ensure the operating environment is prepared to effectively promote and protect the right to privacy as well as the right of access to information. The ORP will assist the Regulator to determine the readiness state of the organization and defines how close this environment is to the desired readiness state.

4.1.2. The objective of the ORP is to critically look at the organization's capacity to successfully deliver or to perform its functions under POPIA, as amended, and initiates appropriate actions or measures to bring a current state of readiness to one of confidence in long-term success of the organisation.
